Whether you were passed tis copy in a dark alley, borrowed it, expropriated it, or bought it on a news stand, one fact remains the same, we need money. OR is sent free to prisoners and others who have no money. We expect others to help support the paper. We rely on our readers for information, stories, graphics and the money needed to publish. A subscription (two hours pay) is the best way to provide a stable base upon which we can build. Help make OR the paper that you deserve. Pay what you can.
